Buckeye DockDogs Practice and Let's Try DockDogs! at Forever Friends

Introductory Dock Jumping Session on June 18, 2011

GRAFTON, OH — Anyone with a water-loving dog who would like to try dock jumping will have the opportunity on June 18, 2011 when Buckeye DockDogs holds Let's Try DockDogs!, an introductory session, at Forever Friends Pet Care Center, 36469 Rt. 303, in Grafton, OH (on State Route 303, 1/4 mile west of State Route 83). From 1:00-3:00 p.m., Buckeye DockDogs members will teach those new to the sport how to encourage a dog to jump through coaching and enthusiasm. The fee is $10; payment for club membership will be accepted onsite and the fee will be waived.

Let's Try DockDogs! will be preceded by a free Buckeye DockDogs members-only practice from 12:00 Noon - 1:00 p.m. This is a good time for newbies to see how it's done. A free open swim from 3:00-4:00 p.m., when all dogs can splash in the Forever Friends pond, will complete the day.

Anyone participating should bring fresh water, towels, crate, and a favorite floating toy; no retractable leashes. No choke, chain, prong or electronic collars can be used on the dock. No bitches in heat.

Forever Friends Pet Care Center provides premier lodging and recreation in a park-like setting. The resort and spa features overnight boarding, day care, a pet hospital, pet grooming, training classes, pet massage and therapeutic swimming, among a variety of other activities and services.
